NEWS RELEASE

Honorable Leslie Ann Celebrezze Elected Administrative Judge of the Cuyahoga County Domestic Relations Court.

Cuyahoga County Domestic Relations Court Judge Leslie Ann Celebrezze has been unanimously elected by her colleagues to the position of Administrative Judge. Judge Celebrezze has been a Domestic Relations Judge since being elected to her first six-year term in 2008. Previously, she served as a magistrate in Cleveland Municipal Court. She will assume the duties of Domestic Relations Court Administrative Judge on January 1, 2018 and for a one-year term.

In her new role, Judge Celebrezze will be responsible for development and administration of court personnel policies, managing the Court's dockets and calendar, and representing the Courts interests regarding public policy and general community issues. "My priority is to ensure that all aspects of the Domestic Relations Court run as efficiently as possible in an effort to improve the experience of our litigants and the community we serve," stated Judge Celebrezze. In accepting this nomination, Judge Celebrezze added, "I am grateful for this opportunity and am eager to work collaboratively with the other Domestic Relations Judges, the Court's magistrates, and the talented court administrative staff." Judge Celebrezze was nominated by Judge Rosemary Grdina Gold, who served as Administrative Judge from 2016-2017.

Judge Celebrezze graduated from Kent State University in 1994 with a Bachelor's degree in Nursing and she received her Juris Doctorate from the University of Akron School of Law in 1999. She is a life-long resident of Cuyahoga County where she and her husband are proud to raise their three children. Judge Celebrezze is honored to carry on the legacy of community service that began generations ago by her family.
